

INGRAM®

ADVANCE

JANUARY 2018

STILL ME

The iconic heroine of Me Before You and After You returns in the latest novel from #1 bestselling author Moyes.

PUBLISHER SELECTS

Evidence of Flossing

What We Leave Behind

Jennifer A. Payne

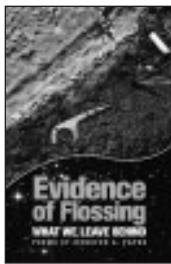

LSIG

Payne's poetry investigates the human condition and its folly, the beauty of the natural world, and the possibility of divine connection. Eighty original and vintage photographs include a series of discarded dental flossers that inspired the book's title. 180 pp.

978-0-9905651-1-6

040872648

paper 20% 21.99

Hope Is a Small Barn

Gregory LeStage

LSIG

The poems in LeStage's new work refuse to accept easy answers to the all-important issues with which they deal. Nevertheless, they explore the human condition's most shared mysteries with an essential optimism that finds and reveals beauty in people and place. Hope is a lantern lit with words. 88 pp.

978-1-943826-29-2

040597016

paper 18.00

& in Open, Marvel

Felicia Zamora

PIR

Poems in & in Open, Marvel deeply attach to the seasons and cycles of life and question how to ingest the world as a natural being, and how people are, at times, displaced in their own humanity. 90 pp.

978-1-60235-984-0

040977988

paper 20% 14.00

Jane Austen's Pride and Prejudice in 61 Haiku (1,037 Syllables!)

James W. Gaynor

LSIG

In the first of a projected series addressing classic works of fiction, Gaynor examines the poetic power of the opening sentences of Pride and Prejudice's 61 chapters. In the resulting haiku, Austen's voice emerges in new and unexpected ways. 208 pp.

978-0-9978428-3-8

040972474

paper 5% 12.95

Korach The Pit and the Petulant

Gabrielle Strauss

LSIG

Based on the Midrash and major commentaries, the story of Korach portrays an era of unrest ripe for a rebellion led by a self-anointed, pseudo leader buried in gross miscalculations. This is an adult book written in rhyme. 166 pp.

978-0-9829255-2-2

040653280

paper 5% 18.00

Lyric Love Poems

Harry Giles

LSIG

Giles offers a collection of poems that reflect a love of nature and his philosophy of life. 112 pp.

978-1-64133-071-8

040889349

paper 5% 7.99

Mathematics of the Heart

The Poetry of M. NourbeSe Philip

M. NourbeSe Philip

WFLP

Kate Siklosi, editor

A selection of poetry by Caribbean-Canadian poet and cultural critic Philip. The collection, which spans from 1980 to the present moment, offers a comprehensive introduction to Philip's work as a vanguard social activist, and as a critical voice in the experimental poetic community. 90 pp.

978-1-77112-336-5

038486626

paper 18.99

Melinda Camber Porter in Conversation with Joyce Carol Oates

Melinda Camber Porter

BAER

Foreword by Catherine Suter

The author's interview with Joyce Carol Oates was in 1987 at Princeton University. In it, Oates notes the American infatuation with celebrities Henry Ford, P.T. Barnum, and Donald Trump. 98 pp.

978-1-942231-03-5

040624045

49.99

